Jeremiah Grant Guidelines

Presbyterian Association on Science, Technology, and the Christian Faith

Purposes of the Grant:

- To stimulate and initiate ongoing congregational reflection on the significance of contemporary scientific and technological development for the worship, education and mission of the local congregation.
- To recruit a minimum of five new PASTCF members per grant.

Eligibility:

Any member of the Presbyterian Church (USA) is eligible to apply for a grant. The grant will be made to and administered by the individual's PCUSA congregation.

Project Duration:

One year.

Amount:

Up to $1,000.

Proposal Submission Deadline:

March 1st for a grant in the same year.

Congregational Endorsement:

Each grant will have explicit congregational endorsement through the session and/or the minister of the congregation. An individual will be designated by the session or minister to serve as the congregational liaison to the project. The project may involve more than one congregation but will be administered by and need be endorsed by only one congregation.

Description of the Project:

No particular type of project is required. Projects could include a series of lectures, an ongoing congregational seminar, an ongoing activity related to worship, congregational education and/or mission. However, a detailed description must be provided of the activities to be undertaken in the project. In addition, the project description should include the manner in which the initiative begun or stimulated by the project will be carried forward beyond the one year term of the project.

Project Budget:

A full budget for the project is to be presented to PASTCF with the submission of the project proposal. This budget will identify any funds and their source(s) beyond the Jeremiah Grant that will be applied to the project.

Project Report:

Although interim reports are welcome, only a final report is required. This report will include a full accounting of the activities of the project as well as a full financial report. The report will also identify the minimum of five persons (with contact information) who will have become new PASTCF members. A summary description of the project will be placed on the PASTCF website.
